Mike,

Just wanted to thank you for getting the roof done as per your quote and time schedule. The price was great and the job came out terrific. It has been a long process getting the house built and I have had plenty of contractor headaches, but dealing with you was a pleasure and would recommend you to others without reservation.

Sincerely,

Captain Brian Malone

To whom it may concern:

Mike Zane completed re-roofing my house, including new gutters, with excellent workmanship and in the short timeframe we agreed upon.

Please feel free to contact me as a reference for Mike Zane's work.

Mike and crew were recommended to us by friends that have used his roofing services several times in the past few years - and what a GREAT recommendation it turned out to be. We had priced a new roof (for a house and two good sized out buildings) through a national home store/depot and our jaws just about dropped when we saw the cost. We had Mike come out to give us a bid and not only did we save a significant amount of money, it was a NO HASSEL job for us. Some of the highlights:

1. Mike returned calls timely and showed up when he said he would - 100% of the time. For those of you that have had to deal with service repair guys, electricians, cable installers, contractors, etc., you know just how rare this is!
2. He provided solid recommendations and options. When asked a question he would tell you pros and cons of the options, he was honest when giving his opinion (rather than making it sound that any other way would be wrong) and when you needed something different, he made it happen. For example, we needed to change the venting on the current roof a bit for reinstallation of the solar panels. While he clearly prefers the "eye brow" venting, he readily made the changes to another style to accommodate our need.
3. There were NO HIDDEN costs. His quote was clear and to the point - from the materials, to the tear off to the full installation.
4. The guys that work with him are amazing. They are friendly and engaged. While they were stripping the old roof off it looked like a hurricane had gone through the yard, at the end of the day you wouldn't have known the roof had been torn off! They really did an amazing job each and every day getting the site cleaned up and safe for us and our pets. They even took a giant magnet around the entire house to ensure they got all of the old (rusty) nails out of the bark and gardens.
5. He coordinated all aspects of the job, including helping me navigate removing of the solar panels (a new thing for me to deal with).
6. The workmanship is beautiful!

I cannot recommend this guy and his crew enough! On top of being a professional and good at what he does, he seems to be a heck of a nice person. I'd hire him again in a heartbeat!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mike Zane just completed reroofing my home. The crew he assembled was courteous, diligent, and thoroughly professional, right down to cleaning up the work site at the end of each day. They did a fine job and I'm very pleased.

It was a pleasure working with Mike who presented me with an affordable bid, graciously answered all my questions, provided all the necessary paperwork and followed up on all the details. He was readily available, either by phone or in person. I'm happy I chose him as my contractor for this project.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

Mike Zane and his company just finished doing a new roof on my house in Hercules. I found him and his workers to be very courteous and professional. They did a very neat and timely installation. His crew came in on time and they completed the job in the time frame initially agreed upon.

I would recommend Mike and his company to anyone that needs a new roof on their home. I was very pleased with the outcome.

Dear Mike:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the work you did on the installation of our new roof. As you know our roof was leaking badly and needed immediate attention.

You gave us a quote in a timely fashion, the work began on time, you communicated with us in an exemplary fashion throughout the project and cleaned up and left no residual debris. We are delighted with the work and the results especially since this was the third roof that had been installed on our 52 year old home within the last twenty years.

I am willing to give any perspective clients my full and enthusiastic endorsement of your services.

Sincerely

David & Maureen Horton
